

1st story

Jeet makes his kites. He would cut paper carefully. and stick into the frame made of thin but strong twigs. He was very good at flying kites. He always flies his kite higher than everyone. if anyone tries to go higher. then he will cut them instantly. All the other flyers call him the king of the sky. one day Jeet went to fly a kite. there were no other flyers. He pulled his strings to fly the kite. At first the kite wobbled, then the kite established there was no competition and after sometime the jeet got bored. Jeet made his mind wind up the string. at the time a competition arrived, jeet was surprised because there was no tail at the kite.it looks like it but it was a butterfly Monarchy.it looks like that the butterfly likes the green-yellow kite. the butterfly gets close to the kite and started flying higher in the sky. Jeet quickly started pulling and releasing string they get into a. infinity race. Sometimes the butterfly goes higher and sometimes the kite goes higher. I the field other flyers have arrived none of them did not fly their kite. there was a hushed silence. after some time butterfly gets behind it was unbelievable but true.and she started to come down at speed he she will hit the ground . seeing this jeet started downing the kite. At a point it gets down below the butterfly. the butterfly landed on the kite. he stared at the butterfly. it looks like that butterfly is very tired. after some time he gained his strength back.everyone was happy to see that butterflies started fluttering his wings.after this butterfly around jeet come back to the position of Jeet . then he flew away . everyone in the field started clapping.
